Our mission:

To improve the quality of life of individuals, provide respite for caregivers and clients, and offer a community-based alternative to institutionalization while promoting client functioning to the extent of their ability.

- What is Adult Day care?

An adult day services program is a community-based program designed to meet the needs of adults with impairments through individualized plans of care.

- Medical care:

Our registered nurses provide a wide range of services including daily health monitoring, on-time medication intake and comprehensive plan of care

- Personal Care:

Our trained, qualified personnel assist with activities of daily living

- Recreational Activities:

Our center offers a variety of stimulating, enjoyable, interesting and fun activities to challenge and entertain our participants.
